

SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHT OF INFORMATION

From the day of publication of the call of the General Meeting, the shareholders may examine, at the Service Offices of the General Meeting located at calle Pintor Sorolla no. 8, 46002 Valencia (registered office) or at Paseo de la Castellana no. 189, 28046 Madrid, from Monday to Friday between 9am and 2pm, or may ask to be sent (immediately and free of charge) a copy of the verbatim text of the proposed resolutions on the agenda already approved by the Board of Directors and any reports, if mandatory, in accordance with the items on the agenda. The same documentation may be examined and obtained through the Company's website (www.bankia.com).

In addition to the aforementioned documentation, pursuant to the provisions of article 518 of the Spanish Corporations Act (Ley de Sociedades de Capital), the Company's website will make available, without interruption from the moment the General Meeting is called until it is held, the call of the General Meeting, the total number of shares and voting rights at the date of the call publication, the complete text of the proposed resolutions, the necessary reports issued by the Board of Directors on the proposed resolutions, the (separate and consolidated) annual accounts of the Bank and its Group, the corresponding management and auditors' reports, the annual report on directors' remuneration, the forms that must be used for proxy and remote voting and all the documents that will be submitted to the General Meeting for approval.

In accordance with the provisions of articles 197 and 520 of the Corporations Act and article 7 of the Company's General Meeting Regulations, from the day of publication of the call of the General Meeting until and including the seventh day prior to the day it is set to be held on first call, or during the General Meeting, the shareholders may request such information or clarifications as they may deem to be necessary, or pose written questions they deem to be pertinent to the matters on the agenda. The shareholders, within the same terms and in the same manner, may request information or clarifications and pose questions in writing regarding information accessible to the public that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Markets Commission (Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores) since the holding of the most recent General Meeting and regarding the auditors' report.

Requests for information shall be sent in writing to the Service Offices of the General Meeting at the addresses indicated above and delivered by hand at the address or sent by post or by electronic means using the Electronic Service provided on the Company's corporate website (www.bankia.com), in which case, in order to provide the system with the appropriate guarantees of authenticity and identification of the shareholders exercising their right to information, an electronic signature, advanced or recognised, in the terms set forth in Electronic Signature Law 59/2003 of 19 December, based on either a recognised electronic certificate for which there is no record of its having been revoked and that has been issued by the Royal Spanish Mint (FNMT-RCM), or an electronic ID number. Whichever means is used for sending the requests for information, the shareholders' requests must include their name and surname (or company name), the taxpayer identification number and evidence of the shares held, in order to be able to check this information against the list of shareholders and the number of shares appearing in each shareholder's name provided by Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U. (Iberclear) for the General Meeting in question. Unless the shareholder specifies otherwise, the Company may handle the requests for information it receives by replying to the shareholder who sent it using the latter's email address. The shareholders may also request information by contacting the Service Offices of the General Meeting by telephone (902 10 75 75, or +34 81 787 75 75 for calls from outside Spain) or by electronic means using the Electronic Service provided on the Company's corporate website (www.bankia.com), in which case the shareholders must use their electronic signature as indicated above.

If an oral request, made during the General Meeting, for information or clarification in respect of an item of business on the agenda is not met at the time of the request, the Board of Directors shall provide such information or clarification in writing within seven days of the end of the General Meeting.

The directors shall not be obliged to respond to specific questions if, prior to asking the questions, the requested information is already clearly and directly available on the Company's corporate website (www.bankia.com) in a question and answer format. Also, pursuant to the provisions of article 197 of the Corporations Act and article 7.4 of the Company's General Meeting Regulations, it is hereby stated that the directors shall not be obliged to provide the aforementioned information if (i) publication thereof could be contrary to the corporate interests and if it is requested by shareholders representing less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the Company's share capital; (ii) the request does not refer to items on the agenda or to information accessible to the public provided by the National Securities Markets Commission since the holding of the most recent General Meeting; (iii) for any reason the information may be considered abusive or contrary to the principle of equality of treatment among the shareholders; (iv) the requested information is clearly and directly available to all shareholders on the Company's corporate website (www.bankia.com) in the form of a FAQ; or (v) for other reasons established by law or in the Bylaws.
